

Cardinal Rule Number Three

Dummy must never, never, never tell declarer how he should have made the hand – at least, not until the game is over and you’re discussing the hands over a nice meal.” You won’t find this rule in the Laws of Duplicate Bridge, but it’s a great dummy rule, nevertheless. Above all, dummy should be a considerate partner.