Kathie Macnab and Jo Ann Lynds are ACBL Certified Bridge Instructors that have been playing bridge for more than 30 years. They play competitively and now spend many hours a week teaching their favourite game.

Jo Ann owns and operates Jo Ann's Bridge School in Truro, NS, and is responsible for the many new players they now have at the Truro Duplicate Club. Not only does Jo Ann teach the beginners, but she has designed and presented programs on advanced bidding, play and defense.

Kathie owns and operates a successful Bridge Studio in Halifax, NS. The Bridge Studio holds nine sanctioned duplicate bridge games a week as well as three leisure games. Kathie is a certified Master Teacher and holds classes from the absolute beginner to the advancing player. Kathie's latest specialty is in multi-level teaching and hosting games for all levels of play.

In 2000, Jo Ann and Kathie added cruising to their bridge adventures. They want to share this incredible experience with new and seasoned bridge players from the Maritimes and beyond! Along with bridge games and daily clinics, they plan on wonderful parties, dinners and a splendid time aboard ship as well as delightful times in ports.

The Grand Slam Bridge Adventure is a private bridge program for a limited number of participants. Please call at your earliest convenience.

ADVENTURES

ELEGANCE ON HOLLAND AMERICA LINE'S NOORDAM

Launched in 2006, the ms Noordam is the newest member of HAL's renowned Vista-class ships. Named for the Northern compass point, she embraces the latest industry and environmental technologies such as her use of a diesel-electric power plant for optimal energy efficiency. The ambiance of the elegant ms Noordam will provide a comfortable, spacious and relaxing backdrop as you sail the sunny Caribbean on your next Grand Slam Adventure.

A CARIBBEAN ADVENTURE!

Feb. 17, 2014 – Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Warm up in Fort Lauderdale on your arrival from the chilly north. This town caters to cruisers and provides excellent hotels, shopping, shows at the Broward Center and beaches for your pre- or-post cruise extensions.

Feb. 18, 2014 – At sea

Feb. 19, 2014 – At sea

Feb. 20, 2014 – Philipsburg, St. Maarten. Cruise to Philipsburg and enjoy the charming and magical capital of Dutch St. Maarten, a melting pot of rich cultures and old-world charm. Philipsburg displays its Dutch heritage in its architecture and landscaping. The island offers endless stretches of beach, beautiful landscapes and great shopping.

Feb. 21, 2014 – Castries, St. Lucia. Scenic Cruising Soufriere Bay. Cruise to Castries, St. Lucia, home to the Piton Peaks and mesmerizing beauty. St. Lucia has been a part of the British Commonwealth since 1803. Castries offers a colourful local market and great shopping. And the surrounding areas offer lush rain forests, striking waterfalls, beautiful beaches and Sulfur Springs - the world's only drive-through volcano.

Feb. 22, 2014 – Bridgetown, Barbados. Cruise to Bridgetown, Barbados and experience a unique British and Caribbean feel. Barbados gained independence from the British in 1966, but their influence is still apparent on this stunning Caribbean island. English is the native tongue, Cricket is the national sport and tea is still a favourite drink. No wonder that this piece of paradise was once called "Little England." This historic city and its nearby Garrison are recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Feb. 23, 2014 – Fort-de-France, Martinique, daylight passing Mt. Pelee. Fort de France oozes charm from its luscious hills and captivating local flavor. It's the capital of Martinique and sits at the end of a huge bay. There is a historic feel to its narrow streets, wrought-iron balconies and shuttered doors. Come and fulfill your sense of adventure, as well as your other five senses.

Feb. 24, 2014 – Roseau, Dominica. Cruise to Roseau and explore the exotic rain forests and volcanic black sand beaches of Dominica. Roseau is a charming coastal village of Dominica and your gateway to one of the Caribbean's most untouched islands. With its lush forested mountains, countless rivers, and black-sand beaches, you'll see why it's called the "Nature Island of the Caribbean." If you've ever wondered what an authentic Caribbean island was like, this is it.

Feb. 25, 2014 – St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands. St. Thomas is known as an idyllic vacation spot today, but its history is not so peaceful. In the 18th century, the island was at the center of a bustling pirate culture, as swashbuckling pirates such as Blackbeard and Drake traded stolen wares in the port of Charlotte Amalie. This world-renowned Caribbean island is home to amazing beaches, gorgeous sea and landscapes and unbelievable duty-free shopping.

Feb. 26, 2014 – At sea.

Feb. 27, 2014 – Half Moon Cay, Bahamas. Fulfill your tropical island fantasy on Half Moon Cay, the Bahamas. Sway in the sweet Bahamian breezes to the rhythms of calypso and find romance on this private island paradise. Cruises to Half Moon Cay deliver you to an idyllic sun-drenched island hideaway where you can play in the turquoise seas, ride horseback on powdery white sand, and encounter silky stingrays.

Feb. 28, 2014 – Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Time to disembark and return home, or spend some time in Florida.
